ZYDECO BASICS & BEYOND - Learn the spicy Creole dance that emerged side-by-side with the earliest forms of Creole music and culture in the bayous and prairies of Southwest Louisiana, originally known as “La La” music, which evolved into what we now know as Zydeco music and dance. Taught from scratch: If you can feel the beat, you can dance to it!

This workshop will get you ready to have a FABULOUS time at the Zydeco Dance Party later in the evening, 7-9 PM, which is part of the Joe Hall Life Celebration @ Harmony House on 1/18 ... as well as for any of RCZN's monthly Harmony House dancehall events later in 2026.

COST - $25 ... must register and pay for the workshop in ADVANCE

BONUS!!! Your $25 workshop registration covers all elements of Joe Hall's Life Celebration including:

- 6 to 7 - Screening of “Who’s That Playing My Box?” – Documentary of Joe Hall’s musical life mission ... including a Q&A with the director Clara Riedlinger
- 7 to 9 - DJed/VJed Zydeco Dance Party – featuring music and videos of Joe Hall in action
